Rosemary,
Best of luck in your senior year and after high school. It's a pity you couldn't become an exchange student I thought you would do well. But if you ever get near England. Please come & visit. KR's. B. "64"

Rosie,
You and I have been friends for a long time. You are one of the sweetest, nicest, and bestest, gals I know. You'll make Bud "a wonderful wife."
See you back next year. Don't do anything this summer and leaves you a lot of room, I wouldn't it.

FREMONT HIGH SCHOOL
Fremont, Michigan

A complete program of studies

. . . IN THE
AREAS

The curriculum at Fremont High School is geared to prepare students for whatever type of vocation they choose. College bound students get an excellent background in Fremont's college preparatory courses. The efficient Business and Industrial Arts Departments prepare students either for future training or jobs in their chosen fields directly from high school.

VOCATIONAL SUBJECTS

For All High School Students

. . . IN THE ARTS

The study of the Arts gives students a cultural background. Such offerings as band, orchestra, chorus, and mixed choir attract our musically inclined students, while our art classes appeal to those interested in painting, sculpture and ceramics.

The physical education program offers varied activities in both gym classes and competitive sports to provide for the physical development of all students.

. . . IN PHYSICAL EDUCATION

ROBERT EISNER
Principal

For the last four years the students of Fremont High School have received the understanding and help of a wonderful principal, Robert Eisner. As a token of appreciation we dedicate this book to him. He has put in long, unselfish hours to better all school facilities. He has made it possible for all students to develop scholastically and has made school more enjoyable through various activities. We, the students of Fremont High, would like to take this opportunity to say thanks.

Superintendent Maxwell Hamilton points out some brick samples for the new school to school board members Carl Smith, Trustee; Edward Essebagggers, Treasurer; Richard Dobben, Secretary and William McKinley, President.

Board of Education

Principals Kraai, Foster and Eisner check some reports with Harry Reber, Jr., Trustee; James Bekkering, Vice-President and William McKinley, President of the school board.

Keith Stroven, Trustee; Ed Essebagggers and James Bekkering are looking over reports with Superintendent Hamilton.

In Memorium

Mrs. Margaret Curren, Secretary to the superintendents of the Fremont Public Schools for thirty-three years, passed away on October 15, 1963, following a brief illness. This page is presented in memory of Mrs. Curren for her many years of efficient service and her devotion to the students of Fremont.

The fine meals served by our cafeteria ladies prove that their ability to prepare so much food so well must come naturally. The cafeteria staff consists of Kathryn Smith, Anna Wolfsen, Theresa Vandenberg, and Burnette Lips.

Mrs. Canniff, superintendent's secretary, Mrs. Durkee, bookstore, and Mrs. Myers, high school principal's secretary, make sure that everything is in good working order in the offices.

Chet Scott, bus maintenance, Zerald Robins, driver training, and Joe Witte, mechanic, are pictured with some of the equipment used in taking care of the buses.

Senior Class History

Memories, just memories. That's all that is left of those four years you called "your high school years." Remember the year?

1960-61 - It all began - you were Freshmen. Remember how proud you were? You seemed to be aglow with pride, because you had finally left Junior High and you were a Freshman. No matter how lowly the upper-classmen treated you, you still felt superior. There was absolutely no denting of your pride - after all, you were the class of '64. To represent you in Student Council that year you chose Kay Emerick, Gloria Neher, John Fitzpatrick, Laurie Walker, and Jim Magee. Cheryl Lips took her place in the Queen's Court as a representative of your class. To manage your class business you chose Doug Powers, President; Cheryl Lips, Vice-President; Shelley McCormick, Secretary; and John Darling, Treasurer, with the help of your head class sponsor, Miss Orr.

Of course you remember that year, it was a young and exciting year, a year like yourselves, a year full of fun and surprises, a year for exploring and learning. Think back, you'll remember it.

1961-62 - Sophomores you were then. You'd settled into the routine of school. That year you really belonged. You found too, through the help of upperclassmen, that you were not as important to the school as you had imagined you were, but still you belonged and that was what was important, remember? Yet through it all you never lost your pride in your class - after all, you were the class of '64. Your head sponsor was Mr. Cooper. With his help and the help of your officers, Bill Jibson, President; John Morrison, Vice-President; Jan Van Sloten, Secretary; and Sandy Wilson, Treasurer, along with the able assistance of Student Council Representatives Kay Emerick, Laurie Walker, Pat Stroven, Bob Voss, and Jim Furda you made it through your Sophomore year with flying colors. You also remember Cheryl Lips again represented your class in the Homecoming Court and Laurie Walker was voted Princess of the Mid-Winter Festival. With the festival over there was not much left to do except wait with great anticipation for your Junior Year.

1962-63 - Your Junior Year. You could feel the excitement as you began that year; you knew of the important things that the year would hold. You could feel graduation getting closer, and what was once so distant could be seen now, in the not so distant future. Most of you hurried down in the early fall to get your class rings that would prove to everyone that you were the class of '64. You wore them with pride, well why shouldn't you be proud - after all, you were the class of '64. President John Parminster, Vice-President Dick Peters, Secretary Jan Van Sloten, and Treasurer Bob Howard chartered and guided you that year, and were in turn guided by head sponsor, Mr. Brown. You had elected to the Student Council that year the following: Cheryl Lips, Pat Stroven, Laurie Walker, Bob Voss, Jim Magee, Andy Jend and Barb Weiden.

During the football season of your Junior year, you chose for Homecoming representative Laurie Walker. Later in the year your class was honored by having one of your classmates elected King of the Mid-Winter Festival - Javier Sepulveda. Junior year was nearing its end when you started plans for the Junior Play, which was a collection of five one-act plays, directed by Miss Sogge. Also in that year you honored the class of '63 by sponsoring the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. For the theme you chose "Evening in Paris." With the completion of the Prom your final year was close at hand.

1963-64 - Of course you have little trouble at all remembering that year, for it was truly "your year." You had journeyed through those four years running into and overcoming obstacles at every turn, but you had finally made it; you were Seniors. You swelled with pride at the mere mention of "Senior" and why not - after all, you were the class of '64. As you entered your Senior year, your class elected John Frens, President; Marc Scott, Vice-President; Cookie Meyer, Secretary; and Jan Klassen, Treasurer. You were proud of the part that the Senior class played in your student government, because there were sixteen of you in the Student Council. Senior Representatives were Alan Bennett, Mary Wakefield, Karen McNeill, Merrilee, Smith, Chick Gerber, and Andrea Myers. Others of you were Pat Stroven, President; Jim Magee, Vice-President; Barb Wieden, Secretary; John Darling, Treasurer; and Cabinet members Karen Hawkey, Share the Fare; Shelley McCormick, Assemblies; Bob Voss, Dance; Carol Frodey, Halls; Laurie Walker, Student Activities; and Tim Truman, Finance. Your chief sponsor was Mrs. Boerman, who was assisted by Miss Elmquest, Miss Van Horn, Mr. Adair, Mr. Durkee, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Griffin.

You remember how much fun you had working at the Senior Sale, the many nights of canvassing and the Sale itself. While most of you were working on the Sale there were the others who were concentrating on making the Senior Play a success. Mr. Kidder directed the play, "The Diary of Anne Frank," starring Kay Demmon, Tim Truman, Shelley McCormick, and Chick Gerber. From the six queen candidates, consisting of Vicki Hall, Cheryl Lips, Laurie Walker, Cookie Meyer, Shelley McCormick, and Pat Stroven, you and the rest of the student body selected Cookie Meyer as Homecoming Queen. Your class was again honored at the Mid-Winter Festival, by the election of Marianna Jonsson, Queen; and Volker Schutte, King.

Then as the year neared its end you as Seniors became involved in all the last activities of high school, college applications and acceptances, the Senior Party, the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom honoring you, the exams, Baccalaureate and Commencement. With Commencement Exercises came the end of high school. You were saddened and yet glad with anticipation of things to come. But above everything you were aglow with pride because you were something that no other graduating class of Fremont had been before - "You were the Class of '64."

Memories, just memories. That's all that is left of those four years which you called, "your high school years."

Jim and Raymond assist Miss Gill and Mr. Durkee after an assembly.

Hey! Which way is the pep meeting?

I wonder if Dan concentrates this hard when he isn't having his picture taken!

Hey! Wait a minute fellows!

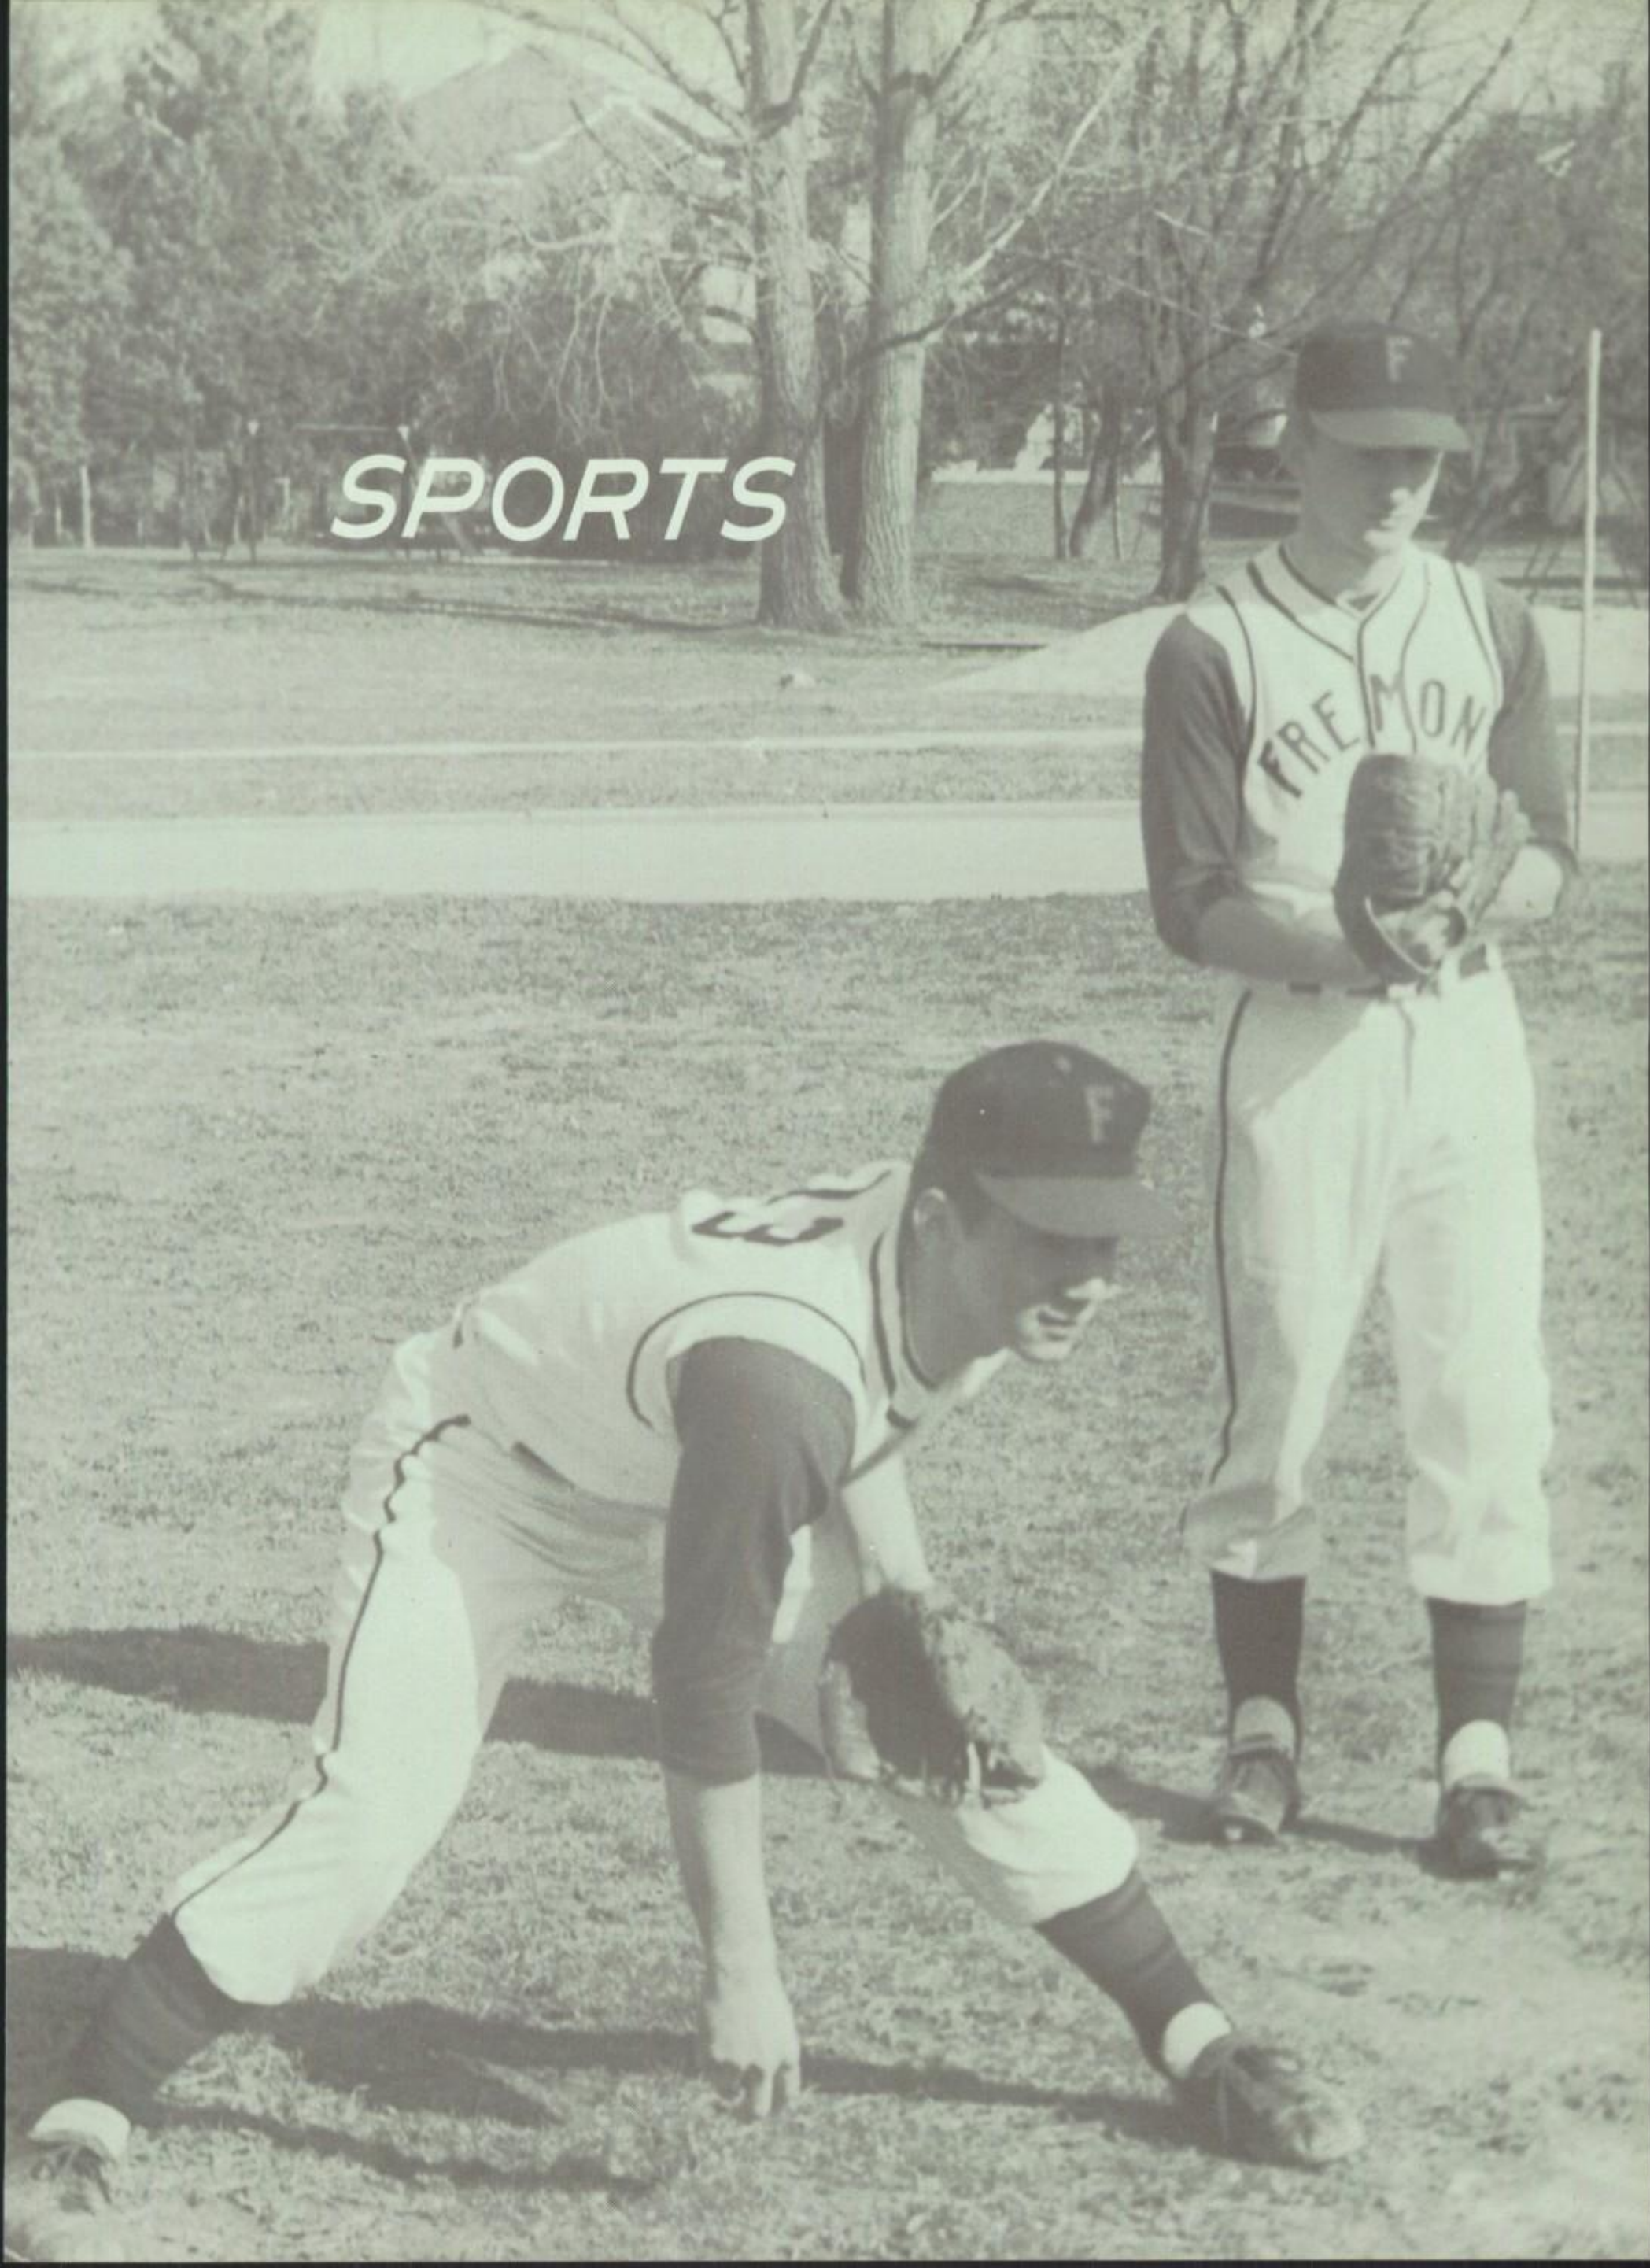

The band leads our team on to victory.

The homemaking girls work hard to make the style show a success.

Senior Band

Through the efforts of the community, the band members and their director, Eldon Durkee, our Senior Band was able to purchase new uniforms this year.

The uniforms, which are black with red and white trim, were viewed for the first time by the student body at an assembly held on March 10.

There are also red overlays for the uniforms which will be used for marching outside. The black dress uniforms, as pictured above, will be for concerts.

Homecoming

Senior members of the Homecoming court were Vicki Hall, Lauri Walker, Cookie Meyer, Pat Stroven, Shelley McCormick and Cheryl Lips.

Cheryl Lips portrays "Casey At The Bat" in the Homecoming pageant.

Balancing on the parallel bars as her act is Vicki Hall.

1964

The long awaited announcement is finally made. Homecoming Queen for 1964 is Cookie Meyer.

Kay Demmon sang "I've Got A Lot Of Living To Do" to take first prize in the talent show.

Second prize was awarded to the "Brothers 4 — 3 + 2 Sisters," Volker Schutte, Cheryl Lips, and Pegi Scott.

Mid-Winter Festival

Festival royalty was composed of Princess Cindy Reber, Prince Mike DeKuiper, Queen Mariana Jonsson, and King Volker Schutte.

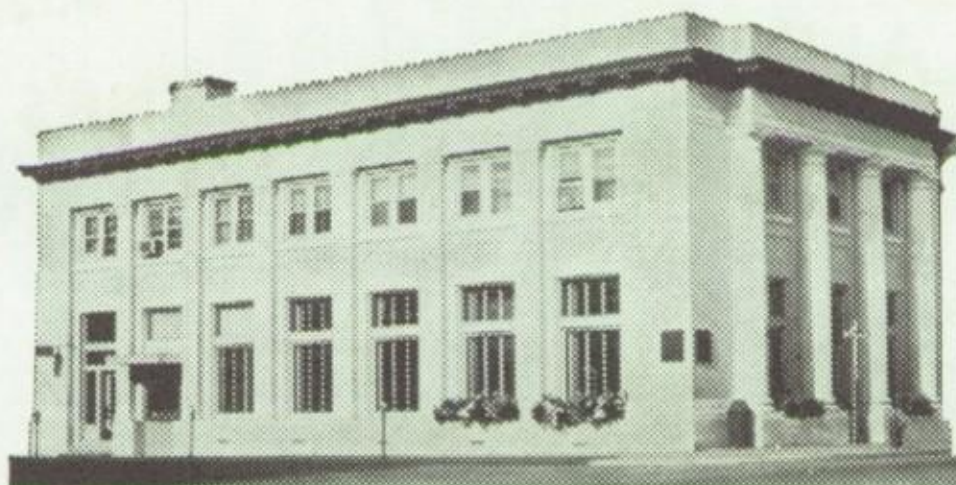

Senior Class President John Frens presides over the senior ring toss booth.

The Tempests took third prize. Members of the combo are Allen Chystler, Bernie VanZanten, Larry Morton, and Ken Saum.

Rosemary!
 We had a good
 year in English III
 but next year we'll have better times but
 not necessarily in
 Eng. III. Best wishes,
 have fun, and be good!
